Student Perspectives
on America's 250th

1776-2026

February 7 - 28, 2026

Slater Memorial Museum
Norwich, Connecticut

We the People is a student-produced exhibition exploring diverse perspectives on the meaning of America's 250th anniversary. Featuring artwork and creative expression by students from Norwich and the surrounding region, the exhibition invites reflection on the nation's past, present, and future through the voices of young people.

Student work from local schools and youth organizations will be on display throughout the gallery.

Exhibit admission included with regular museum admission.
